2027 SCPA Annual Meeting
From Pathology to Purpose:
Reclaiming Wellness in Psychiatry
January 15–16, 2027 · Wild Dunes Resort
Isle of Palms, South Carolina

Dear SCPA Supporter,

The South Carolina Psychiatric Association invites you to join us at our 2027 Annual Meeting, January 15–16 at the Wild Dunes Resort in Isle of Palms, SC. The meeting brings together 80+ psychiatrists, residents, fellows, students, and other medical professionals for two days of education and networking — and offers you several ways to participate, contribute, and connect with dozens of South Carolina's psychiatric professionals.

The 2027 SCPA Annual Meeting leans toward wellness, not only for the patients we serve, but for the future of psychiatry itself. This year's program moves beyond pathology to explore how psychiatrists can help patients reclaim health, resilience, meaning, and purpose across the lifespan.

If you have any questions or would like to be a 2027 sponsor, please contact the SCPA office at info@scpsych.org. We hope to see you at Wild Dunes!

Sincerely,
Brittany Albright, MD, MPH, DABOM
President, South Carolina Psychiatric Association
